DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff Dawn Howe ("Plaintiff"), individually and on behalf of all others
2 similarly situated, files this Class Action Complaint against Defendants Menu
3 Foods, Inc., a New Jersey Corporation, Menu Foods Income Fund, a foreign
4 corporation, and its affiliated entities (collectively "Defendants"). Plaintiff alleges
5 the following based on personal knowledge with respect to her own experiences,
6 and otherwise based on information and belief.

7 INTRODUCTION

8 1. This is a nationwide class action lawsuit brought on behalf of Plaintiff
9 and others similarly situated who purchased contaminated pet food products
10 produced, manufactured, and/or distributed by Defendants that caused injury, 11 sickness, and/or death to Plaintiff's pets and those of other pet owners across the 12 nation (the "Products"). The Products were marketed and sold under various brand
13 names, including "Special Kitty" purchased by Plaintiff.

14 2. Defendants are the nation's leading manufacturer of pet food sold by 15 retailers, pet specialty stores, and other wholesale and retail outlets including Wal-
16 Mart, Safeway, Petco, PetSmart Inc., and Kroger.

17 3. Defendants developed, manufactured, marketed, advertised, and 18 warranted their Products as safe and fit for the ordinary purpose for which they 19 were used, i.e., household pet consumption, free of defects. Defendants intended
20 to, and did, place the Products in the stream of commerce to be sold to Plaintiff and 21 other pet owners in California and throughout the United States.

22 4. Defendants knew and have admitted that the Products are not only
23 defective but poisonous. On March 16, 2007, Defendants initiated a recall of 60
24 million cans and pouches of "cuts and gravy" style dog and cat food manufactured
25 between December 3, 2006 and March 6, 2007. The recall was limited to such 26 products manufactured at Defendants' New Jersey and Kansas facilities.

1       5. On March 23, 2007, New York state health officials reported
2 laboratory tests of the Products found aminopterin (rat poison) at levels of at least
3 40 parts per million. The pet food samples were tested by the New York State
4 Animal Health Diagnostic Center at Cornell University and the New York State
5 Food Laboratory, which identified aminopterin as the toxic substance.

6       6. As of March 24, 2007, Menu Foods' executives state they have no
7 idea how or when the rat poison got into their products at their plants in Kansas
8 and New Jersey.

9       7. After 14 confirmed pet deaths from kidney failure, countless 10 additional cases of very sick animals with similar symptoms, soaring projections of 11 pet death and sickness in the thousands by veterinary professionals, over 4,000
12 consumer complaints and inquiries to the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), 13 and despite Defendants' own product testing last month that resulted in as many as 14 one in six animal deaths, Defendants continue to produce pet food at the two 15 contaminated plants.

16       8. By at least February 20, 2007, almost a month before issuing its recall
17 on March 16, Defendants knew about complaints from pet owners reporting that 18 the food had made their pets sick. By February 27, Defendants started testing its 19 product on 40 to 50 animals. By March 6, Defendants identified a likely source of 20 contamination, i.e., a new supplier of wheat gluten (an ingredient used to make 21 "gravy" for some of its pet-food brands). The company alerted the FDA of its test
22 results the week of March 12, and issued a product recall that Friday, March 16.
23 Thus, Defendants knew about the potential for widespread problems almost a
24 month before the recall on March 16. And by March 6, they knew their Products
25 were killing and sickening pets across the nation.

26       9. Rather than timely warning the public about the suspected and later 27 confirmed dangers of the Products, Defendants delayed announcing the recall to 28

1 minimize the financial fallout from the contamination. Defendants had no choice
2 but to issue a recall on March 16, because by then, Defendants' biggest customer
3 (for which it contract manufacturers and which accounts for 11% of annual 4 revenue) had initiated its own recall of Defendants' Products.

5 10. As a result of Defendants' negligent manufacture of the defective
6 Products and delay in warning affected pet food owners, Plaintiff and members of 7 the Class have unnecessarily suffered damages in the form of expensive veterinary 8 bills, loss of pets (and the cost of putting the animal to sleep and burial services),
9 and to the purchase price of the Products which they would have never bought had 10 they known they were defective.

11 PARTIES

12 11. Plaintiff is a resident of Paducah, Kentucky. Plaintiff purchased the 13 recalled "Special Kitty" Product and fed them to her cats, resulting in sickness
14 and/or death to her cats. Plaintiff brings this action, pursuant to Rule 23 of the 15 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on her own behalf and as a representative of a
16 class of persons consisting of all persons in the United States who purchased
17 and/or incurred damages (medical and other expenses) by using the Products made
18 and/or distributed by Defendants and later recalled.

19 12. Defendant MENU FOODS INCOME FUND is an unincorporated
20 open-ended trust established under the laws of the Province of Ontario with its 21 principal place of business in Ontario, Canada. The Income Fund controls, directly 22 or indirectly, the other Defendants engaged in the manufacture and distribution of 23 pet food products, including the Products.

24 13. Defendant MENU FOODS MIDWEST CORP. is a Delaware
25 corporation affiliated with the other Defendants and involved in their activities
26 relating to the Products.

1        14. Defendant MENU FOODS SOUTH DAKOTA INC. is a Delaware
2 corporation is affiliated with the other Defendants and involved in their activities
3 relating to the Products.

4        15. Defendant MENU FOODS HOLDINGS, INC. is a Delaware
5 corporation affiliated with the other Defendants and involved in their activities
6 relating to the Products.

7        16. Defendant MENU FOODS, INC. is a New Jersey corporation
8 affiliated with the other Defendants and involved in their activities relating to the 9 Products.

10       17. Defendant MENU FOODS LIMITED manufactures and sells wet pet
11 food products to retail customers and brand owners in North America. MFL owns
12 the Kansas and New Jersey manufacturing plants that produced the Products now 13 subject to recall. It is affiliated with the other Defendants and involved in their 14 activities relating to the Products.

15       18. DOES 1-100 are individuals and entities, the relationship of which to 16 the specifically named defendants is such as to justify disregarding the 17 separateness of those entities for purposes of liability, whether by piercing of the 18 corporate veil or by actual or apparent authority of each to act on behalf of one 19 another or because of a conspiracy between them to do the things herein alleged.
20 All defendants, including DOE defendants are agents for each other, or otherwise 21 directly or vicariously responsible for their actions, either by agreement or by 22 operation of law, including, inter alia, the laws applicable to general partnerships,
23 piercing of the corporate veil, actual or apparent agency, and conspiracy.

24       19. The true names and capacities of Defendants sued as DOES 1-100,
25 inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiffs. Each of the Defendants designated
26 herein as a DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts 27 referred to herein. Some or all DOE defendants are controlled by, control, or have 28

1 a common nucleus of control with one or more specifically named defendants in
2 such a manner as to justify disregarding the separateness of said entities or 3 individuals from one another. Some or all DOE defendants are entities or 4 individuals, who function as the agents or co-conspirators of specifically named 5 defendants, and other defendants, including DOE defendants, facilitating the 6 ability of one another to perpetrate the wrongs alleged in herein. Plaintiff will seek 7 leave of Court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of 8 the Defendants designated as DOES when such identities and the true connection 9 of them to this case become known.

10 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11 20. The Court has original jurisdiction over this complaint pursuant to 28
12 U.S.C. §1332(d) and the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005, Publ. L. 109-2 (Feb.
13 18, 2005); and over supplemental state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

14 21. Venue is proper in this district under, inter alia, 28 U.S.C. §§1391
15 and/or Pub. L. 109-2. Defendants made or caused the Products to be offered for 16 sale and sold to the public, in this district in California.

17 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

18 22. Plaintiff brings this action on her own behalf and as a Class action
19 pursuant to Rule 23(b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure on behalf of the 20 following proposed class:

21 All persons in the United States who purchased, or incurred damages
22 by using, pet food produced or manufactured by Defendants that was 23 or will be recalled by Defendants, including that produced from December 3, 2006 up to and including March 6, 2007.

24 Upon completion of discovery with respect to the scope of the Class, Plaintiff
25 reserves the right to amend the class definition. Excluded from the Class are 26 Defendants, their parents, subsidiaries and affiliates, directors and officers, and 27 members of their immediate families. Also excluded from the Class are the court,
28

1 the Court's spouse, all person within the third degree of relationship to the Court
2 and its spouse, and the spouses of all such persons.

3 23. The Class is composed of thousands of persons throughout the
4 country, and is sufficiently numerous for class treatment. The joinder of all Class
5 members individually in one action would be impracticable, and the disposition of 6 their claims in a class action will provide substantial benefits to the parties and the 7 Court.

8 24. Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the Class, and Plaintiffs
9 has no interests adverse to the interests of other members of the Class.

10 25. This dispute raises questions of law and fact that are common to all
11 Class members. Those common questions predominate over questions that arise
12 on an individual basis for Class members. The common questions of law and fact 13 include, without limitation:

14 (a) Whether Defendants violated California Business &
15 Professions Code §17200, et seq. and §17500, et seq.;

16 (b) Whether Defendants' representations, omissions, and conduct
17 regarding the Products were misleading or false;

18 (c) Whether Defendants' representations and conduct were likely 19 to deceive consumers into believing that the Products were safe for the purpose for 20 which they were sold;

21 (d) When Defendants knew or should have known the Products
22 were poisoning animals;

23 (e) Whether Defendants refused to disclose the problems with the 24 Products after it knew of their propensity to harm pets;

25 (f) Whether the propensity of the Products to harm pets constitutes 26 a manufacturing or design defect;

27

28

1 (g) Whether Defendants' conduct constitutes a breach of 2 warranties;

3 (h) Whether Defendants' conduct constitutes a breach of contract;

4 (i) Whether members of the Class have been injured by 5 Defendants conduct;

6 (j) Whether members of the Class have sustained damages and are 7 entitled to restitution as a result of Defendants wrongdoing and, if so, what is the 8 proper measure and appropriate formula to be applied in determining such 9 damages and restitution, the availability of emotional distress and medical 10 monitoring damages; and

11 (k) Whether members of the Class are entitled to injunctive relief.

12 26. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class
13 and have retained counsel experienced and competent in the prosecution of class
14 action litigation.

15 27. A class action is superior to other methods for the fair and efficient
16 adjudication of the claims herein asserted. Plaintiffs anticipate that no unusual 17 difficulties are likely to be encountered in the management of this class action.

18 28. A class action will permit a large number of similarly situated persons
19 to prosecute their common claims in a single forum simultaneously, efficiently,
20 and without the duplication of effort and expense that numerous individual actions
21 would engender. Class treatment also will permit the adjudication of relatively 22 small claims by many Class members who could not otherwise afford to seek legal 23 redress for the wrongs complained of herein. If a Class or general public action is 24 not permitted, many Class members will likely receive no remedy for damages
25 suffered as a result of Menu Food's misconduct.

29. Defendants have acted and refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the entire Class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief with respect to the Class as a whole.

FACTS

30. Defendants hold themselves out to the public as a manufacturer of safe, nutritious, and high-quality dog and cat food. Indeed, it claims that it is "the leading North American private-label/contract manufacturer of wet pet food products sold by supermarket retailers, mass merchandisers, pet specialty retailers and other retail and wholesale outlets." However, on March 23, the New York State Agriculture Commissioner and Cornell University's College of Veterinary Medicine announced that scientists at the New York State Food Laboratory discovered aminopterin -- a substance fatal to dogs and cats (and commonly used as rat poison in many countries) -- was present in samples of Defendants products. The tests were conducted, because dogs and cats have been dying all over the country after consuming Defendants' pet food.

31. One week earlier, on March 16, 2007, Defendants announced a recall of the Products, which included approximately 42 brands of "cuts and gravy" style dog food and 51 brands of "cuts and gravy" style cat food, all produced at Defendants' facilities in Emporia, Kansas and Pennsauken, New Jersey between December 3, 2006 and March 6, 2007.

32. Defendants knew -- or should have known -- about the Product long before the public found out from the New York State Agriculture Commissioner what was going on: Indeed, well before Defendants' March 16, 2007 recall announcement, Defendants received numerous complaints from around the country concerning sick and dead dogs and cats that ate the Products. Indeed, Defendants had determined the likely source of the source of the contamination in the Products and ceased using that supplier at least 10 days earlier -- by March 6, 2007.

1 Defendants knew about problems no later than February 20, 2007, and were
2 conducting an internal investigation by February 27, 2007. Defendants were 3 thereby able to determine a particular new supplier of wheat gluten as the likely 4 source of the poison, and correct that issue before announcing the recall, thereby
5 limiting the temporal scope of the recall. After March 6, 2007, Defendants
6 continued to maintain their silence, as they -- according to their own later 7 announcement -- conducted a "substantial battery of technical tests, conducted by 8 both internal and external specialists."

9 33. Defendants still did not announce a recall or inform the public about 10 the Products until its largest institutional customer, which accounted for 11 approximately 11% of Menu Food's revenue, indicated that it would initiate its 12 own recall of Defendants' products, and place all of its future Menu Food orders
13 on "hold." Faced with having one of its customers announce a recall, Defendants
14 finally made its own announcement on March 16, 2007.

15 34. Defendants' delay in disclosing vital information concerning the 16 Products is in direct contrast to its own published Code of Ethical Conduct
17 ("Code") which touts that it is "committed to full and honest communications with 18 [its] customers about [its] products and services." Defendants have further 19 acknowledged in its Code that, as a pet food company, its customers have "trust in 20 us" and that "their trust in us must be justified" (e.g., by avoiding "promises that 21 Menu [Foods] cannot keep").

22 35. Defendants, directly, or through agents, ostensible agents and / or co-
23 conspirators, by selling the Products as pet food, have implicitly and explicitly 24 represented that the Products are fit for consumption by pets, and will not result in 25 the death and serious illness of the pets that consume the purported food.

26 36. Defendants have also made representations, including on product
27 labeling and otherwise in print materials and in other marketing and promotional 28

1 materials, concerning the quality of the Products, including explicit and implicit
2 representations that the Products are suitable for consumption by pets. Defendants
3 ultimately make billions of dollars in revenue a year from companies who sell
4 Menu Foods at the retail level -- accordingly, Defendants keep themselves apprised
5 of the advertising, promotions, marketing and claims that are made on behalf of 6 Menu Food's products. On information and belief, Defendants coordinate with the 7 companies who brand the product at the retail level, concerning the claims made
8 about the quality of Defendants product, including the Products.

9       37. Plaintiff Dawn Howe purchased the Products and fed them to her four 10 pet cats, never suspecting that it contained aminopterin. Aminopterin is a deadly 11 poison that is foreign to pet food, does not naturally occur within it, and would not
12 be expected by any reasonable person to be present in pet food. One of Howe's
13 cats died from kidney failure as a result of the aminopterin in the Product. Howe
14 took her remaining three to the vet for a panel of blood tests, only to learn that two 15 of her surviving cats have also been affected, although not terminally. Aside from 16 emotional trauma, Ms. Howe has also incurred out-of-pocket costs in connection
17 with the care of her cats, and will continue to do so, as a result of Defendants'
18 Product.

19                               FIRST CAUSE ACTION
20                               STRICT PRODUCTS LIABILITY

21       38. Plaintiff hereby incorporates all other allegations in the Complaint
22 into this Cause of Action, except such allegations as may be inconsistent herewith
23 (which are plead in the alternative). Plaintiff alleges this cause of action on behalf
24 of herself and all others similarly situated.

25       39. Defendants are strictly liable for supplying a product that is either 26 defective in its manufacture by virtue of the introduction of aminopterin into the 27 Product while under Menu Food's control or, alternatively, defective in its design,
28

1 by virtue of the lack of safeguards necessary to ensure that aminopterin or similar
2 toxins are not introduced into its pet food while under Menu Food's control.

3 40. Defendants are also strictly liable for failure to warn the public of the 4 known dangers and reasonably foreseeable harm that could result from use of the 5 Product.

6 41. Plaintiff, as a pet owner, is a reasonably foreseeable user of the 7 Product, and purchased and used the product in a foreseeable manner, that is,
8 Plaintiff fed pets with the Product. Plaintiff has been damaged, and has suffered 9 losses including the loss of a pet, the expenditure of money for medical care and 10 monitoring of pets, severe emotional distress, and the money spent on the Product 11 itself.

12 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
13 NEGLIGENCE

14 42. Plaintiff hereby incorporates all other allegations in the Complaint
15 into this Cause of Action, except such allegations as may be inconsistent herewith
16 (which are plead in the alternative). Plaintiff alleges this cause of action on behalf
17 of herself and all others similarly situated.

18 43. Defendants owed a duty to Plaintiff to ensure that its pet foods were 19 not poisonous to pets in the manner of the Products.

20 44. Additionally, Defendants breached their duty of care to Plaintiff by 21 failing to use sufficient quality control, perform adequate testing, proper 22 manufacturing, production, or processing, and failing to take sufficient measure to 23 prevent the Products from being offered for sale, sold, or fed to pets.

24 45. Res ipsa loquitur applies because Defendants had exclusive control of 25 the relevant instrumentalities, including the Product and manufacturing facilities,
26 and rat poison would not normally be present, absent negligence.

1 46. Menu Food's breaches of duty were the actual and proximate cause of 2 damage to Plaintiff, including the loss of a pet, the expenditure of money for 3 medical care and monitoring of pets, severe emotional distress, and the money
4 spent on the Product itself.

5 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
6 BREACH OF WARRANTY

7 47. Plaintiff hereby incorporates all other allegations in the Complaint
8 into this Cause of Action, except such allegations as may be inconsistent herewith
9 (which are plead in the alternative). Plaintiff alleges this cause of action on behalf
10 of herself and all others similarly situated.

11 48. Defendants, by calling its product "food" and making other similarly 12 enticing representations as set forth more fully, above, impliedly and / or expressly 13 warranted that the Products were ingestible and would not sicken and kill the dogs
14 and cats that ate them. Menu foods also warranted thereby, that its products were 15 fit for the particular purpose of nourishing pets without sickening and killing said
16 pets.

17 49. Defendants breached these warranties by virtue of the facts set forth in 18 the body of the Complaint, and Plaintiff was damaged thereby, including the loss
19 of a pet, the expenditure of money for medical care and monitoring of pets, severe 20 emotional distress, and the money spent on the Product itself.

21 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
22 BREACH OF CONTRACT

23 50. Plaintiff hereby incorporates all other allegations in the Complaint
24 into this Cause of Action, except such allegations as may be inconsistent herewith
25 (which are plead in the alternative). Plaintiff alleges this cause of action on behalf
26 of herself and all others similarly situated.

1        51. The facts as set forth above also constitute the formation and breach
2 of a contract between Plaintiff and Defendants. Alternatively, Plaintiff was 3 necessarily the third party beneficiary of a contract between Defendants and
4 intermediaries from whom Plaintiff purchased the Products. Plaintiff was damaged
5 by Defendants' breaches, as previously set forth.

6                                    FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
7                                    FALSE ADVERTISING (Business and Professions Code § 17500)

8        52. Plaintiff hereby incorporates all other allegations in the Complaint
9 into this Cause of Action, except such allegations as may be inconsistent herewith
10 (which are plead in the alternative). Plaintiff alleges this cause of action on behalf
11 of herself and all others similarly situated.

12        53. California Business & Professions Code §17500 prohibits various 13 deceptive practices in connection with the dissemination in any manner of 14 representations for the purpose of inducing, or which are likely to induce, directly
15 or indirectly, customers to purchase consumer products such as the Products here
16 at issue.

17        54. Defendants acts, practices, misrepresentations and omissions as 18 alleged herein were intended to, and did, induce the consuming public to purchase
19 the Products, and violated and continue to violate Business & Professions Code
20 §17500, in that the Products did not conform to Defendants misrepresentations.

21        55. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's entitled to injunctive and 22 equitable relief, restitution, and an order requiring disgorgement of Menu Food's
23 ill gotten gains.

24                                    SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
25                                    UNFAIR BUSINESS PRACTICES (Business and Professions Code § 17200)

26        56. Plaintiff hereby incorporates all other allegations in the Complaint
27 into this Cause of Action, except such allegations as may be inconsistent herewith
28

1 (which are plead in the alternative). Plaintiff alleges this cause of action on behalf
2 of herself and all others similarly situated.

3 57. The acts as set forth above also constitute unfair and unlawful 4 business practices, and Plaintiff has suffered damage thereby, including out of 5 pocket loss and other pecuniary harm, as also set forth above.

6 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

7 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and the Class, prays for the 8 following relief:

- 9 A. An order certifying the Class as defined above;
10 B. An award of actual damages;
11 C. Appropriate injunctive relief;
12 D. Medical and other expenses;
13 E. Reasonable attorneys' fees and costs; and 14 F. Such further and other relief the Court deems appropriate.
15

16 JURY DEMAND

17 Plaintiff requests trial by jury of all claims that can be so tried.

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

1 Plaintiff Sherry Ingles, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, files this
2 Class Action Complaint against defendants Menu Foods, Inc., a New Jersey Corporation, Menu
3 Foods Income Fund, a foreign corporation, Menu Foods Midwest Corporation, a Delaware
4 corporation, and Menu Foods South Dakota Inc., a Delaware corporation, and alleges as follows:

5 INTRODUCTION

6 1. This is a class action lawsuit brought on behalf of plaintiff and others similarly 7 situated who purchased pet food and pet food products produced, manufactured and/or distributed by 8 defendants that caused injury, illness, and/or death to their household pets.

9 2. Defendants are the leading North American private label/contract manufacturer
10 of wet pet food products sold by supermarket retailers, mass merchandisers, pet specialty retailers,
11 and other wholesale and retail outlets, including Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., Safeway Inc., Kroger
12 Company, PetSmart, Inc., Giant Food, and other large retail chains, and has provided pet food
13 products to or for Procter & Gamble Company. Defendants produce hundreds of millions of 14 containers of pet food annually.

15 3. Defendants designed, manufactured, marketed, advertised and warranted their pet
16 food products. In conjunction with each sale, defendants marketed, advertised and warranted that 17 the products were fit for the ordinary purpose for which such goods were used – consumption by 18 household pets – and were free from defects. Defendants produce the pet food products intending that 19 consumers will purchase the pet food products, regardless of brand or label name, place of purchase,
20 or the location where pets actually consume them. The pet food products were intended to be placed 21 in the stream of commerce and distributed and offered for sale and sold to plaintiff and purchasers in 22 California and the United States and fed to their pets.

23 4. Plaintiff brings this action, pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil 24 Procedure, on her own behalf and as a representative of a class of persons consisting of all persons in 25 the United States who purchased, or incurred damages by using pet food produced manufactured
26

1 and/or distributed by defendants that was or will be recalled by defendants, including that produced
2 from December 3, 2006 up to and including March 6, 2007 (the "Class"). The pet food products
3 referenced in this paragraph will hereinafter be referred to as the "Products."

4 5. As a result of the defective Products, plaintiff and members of the Class have suffered
5 damages in that they have incurred substantial veterinary bills, death of pets, and purchased and/or 6 own pet food and pet food products that they would not otherwise have bought had they known such 7 products were defective.

9 6. Defendants know and have admitted that certain of the Products produced by 10 defendants between December 3, 2006 and March 6, 2007 are defective and causing injury and death
11 to household pets, and on March 16, 2007, initiated a recall of some of the Products. Further, the 12 Food and Drug Administration has reported that as many as one in six animals died in tests of the 13 Products by defendants last month after defendants received complaints the products were poisoning
14 pets around the country. A spokeswoman for the New York State Department of Agriculture and 15 Markets has said that rodent poison was determined to have been mixed into the Products by 16 defendants.
17

18 II PARTIES

19 7. Plaintiff is a resident of Alameda County, California, who, in February 2007,
20 purchased Priority Beef Slices in Gravy, UPC Code #2113041452, "Jan 11 10." The Priority dog
21 food purchased by plaintiff is a part of the group of Products that was produced, manufactured
22 and/or distributed by defendants.
23

24 8. Defendant Menu Foods, Inc. is a New Jersey corporation with its principal place of 25 business in the State of New Jersey, specifically located at 9130 Griffith Morgan Lane, Pennsauken,
26 New Jersey 08110.
27
28

1           9. Defendant Menu Foods, Inc. is ultimately owned or controlled by defendant Menu
2 Foods Income Fund, an unincorporated company with its principal place of business in the Province
3 of Ontario, Canada. Some of defendant Menu Foods, Inc.'s high managerial officers or agents with 4 substantial authority are also high managerial officers or agents of defendant Menu Foods Income
5 Fund.

7           10. Defendant Menu Foods Midwest Corporation is a Delaware corporation, and upon
8 information and belief, an affiliate or subsidiary of, and wholly owned and controlled by defendant
9 Menu Foods Income Fund.

10           11. Defendant Menu Foods South Dakota, Inc. is a Delaware corporation, and upon
11 information and belief, an affiliate or subsidiary of, and wholly owned and controlled by defendant
12 Menu Foods Income Fund.

14           12. Plaintiff, individually and as representative of a Class of similarly situated persons as 15 defined below, brings suit against the named defendants for offering for sale and selling to plaintiff
16 and members of the Class the Products in a defective condition and thereby causing damages to 17 plaintiff and members of the Class.

18                           III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

19           13. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1332 and 20 subsection (d), and the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005, Pub. L. 109-2 (Feb. 18, 2005); and over 21 supplemental state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1367.

22
23           14. Venue is proper in this Court and judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391 and/or 24 Pub. L. 109-2 because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred
25 in this judicial district. Thousands of consumers – including members of the Class – purchased the 26 Products in this judicial district from retailers that defendants, their agents, affiliates, or others
27 controlled or were in privity with. In turn, retailers or others sold the Products to the general public,
28

1 including plaintiff, and members of the Class. The Products were purchased for consumption by the
2 pets of plaintiff and the other members of the Class. Defendants made or caused these products to be
3 offered for sale and sold to the public, including plaintiff.

4 IV. SUBSTANTIVE ALLEGATIONS

5 Defendants and Their Defective Pet Food

6 15. Defendants are in the business of manufacturing, producing, distributing, and/or 7 selling pet food under various brands or labels, and/or for third-party firms, including: America's 8 Choice, Authority, Best Choice, Companion, Compliments, Demoulus Market Basket, Eukanuba, 9 Fine Feline Cat, Food Lion, Food Town, Giant Companion, Hannaford, Hill Country Fare, Hy-Vee,
10 Iams, Laura Lynn, Li'l Red, Loving Meals, Meijer's Main Choice, Nutriplan, Nutro Max Gourmet
11 Classics, Nutro Natural Choice, Paws, Pet Pride, Preferred Pets, President's Choice, Priority, Sav-a-
12 Lot, Schnucks, Science Diet Feline Savory Cuts Cans, Sophsitacat, Special Kitty US, Springfield
13 Prize, Sprout, Total Pet, Wegmans, Western Family, White Rose, and Winn Dixie. Defendants has 14 manufactured or produced pet food for private labels for approximately 17 of the 20 leading retailers
15 in the United States.

16 16. Defendants' business includes manufacturing, producing, distributing, or selling dog
17 food under various brands or labels, and/or for third-party firms, including: America's Choice,
18 Authority, Award, Best Choice, Big Bet, Big Red, Bloom, Bruiser, Cadillac, Companion, Demoulus
19 Market Basket, Eukanuba, Food Lion, Giant Companion, Great Choice, Hannaford, Hill Country
20 Fare, Hy-vee, Iams, Laura Lynn, Li'l Red, Loving Meals, Meijer's Main Choice, Mixables, 21 Nutriplan, Nutro Max, Nutro Ultra, Nutro, Ol'Roy US, Paws, Pet Essentials, Pet Pride - Good &
22 Meaty, Preferred Pets, President's Choice, Price Chopper, Priority, Publix, Roche Brothers, Sav-a-
23 Lot, Schnucks, Shep Dog, Sprout, Statler Bros, Total Pet, Western Family, White Rose, Winn Dixie, 24 and Your Pet.

1           17. Defendants produce millions of pouches or containers of pet food products each year,
2 a substantial portion of which are sold or offered for sale in California. Upon information and belief,
3 defendants have sold, either directly or indirectly, thousands of units of defective pet food and pet
4 food products nationwide and in the State of California.

5           18. Defendants manufactured, marketed, advertised, warranted and sold, either directly
6 or through their authorized distribution channels, the Products that caused plaintiff's damages.
7 Plaintiff and members of the Class have been or will be forced to pay for damages caused by the 8 defect in defendants' Products.

10                                   Factual Allegations Related to Plaintiff

11           19. In January and February 2007, plaintiff purchased Priority Beef Slices in Gravy dog
12 food from a national chain grocery store, Safeway, operating in Northern California.

13           20. Plaintiff's dog was fed the dog food and became ill mid-February 2007, exhibiting
14 numerous symptoms consistent with kidney failure.
15

16           21. Plaintiff's dog was put to sleep on March 3, 2007.

17           22. On or about March 16, 2007, defendants announced a recall of approximately 42
18 brands of "cuts and gravy style pet food," all produced by defendants "between December 3, 2006
19 and March 6, 2007." Defendants had initially received complaints from consumers as far back as 20 February 20, 2007 indicating that certain of defendants' pet food was causing kidney failure and 21 death in dogs and cats.
22

23           23. Thereafter, plaintiff learned about the recall and the potential problems that could 24 occur from feeding the Products to her pet. Prior to the recall, defendants never warned plaintiff or 25 any other member of the Class that the Products would cause their pets to have health problems. As 26 referenced above, defendants knew about the risks of injury or death at least one month prior to the time
27 that plaintiff fed the Products to her dog.
28

1           24. As a result of their purchases of the Products, as set forth above, plaintiff and other
2 members of the Class have suffered and will suffer damages, including consequential and incidental
3 damages, such as the loss and disability of their household pets, costs of purchasing the Products and 4 replacing them with a safe product, including sales tax or a similar tax, costs of making an additional
5 trip to a retail store to purchase safe, non-contaminated pet food, the price of postage to secure a 6 refund offered by defendants, the cost of veterinarians, treatment, medicines and the trip(s) to make
7 such visits for diagnosis and treatment, and otherwise.

9                                   V.     CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

10           25. Plaintiff brings this action on her own behalf and as a class action pursuant to Rule
11 23(b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure on behalf of the following proposed class:

12                   All persons in the United States who purchased, or incurred damages by using, pet
13 food produced, manufactured and/or distributed by defendants that was or will be 14 recalled by defendants, including that produced from December 3, 2006 up to and including March 6, 2007.

15           Upon completion of discovery with respect to the scope of the Class, plaintiff reserves the right to 16 amend the class definition. Excluded from the Class are defendants, their parents, subsidiaries and 17 affiliates, directors and officers, and members of their immediate families. Also excluded from the 18 Class are the Court, the Court's spouse, all persons within the third degree of relationship to the 19 Court and its spouse, and the spouses of all such persons.<sup>1</sup>

20           26.     Numerosity: The members of the Class are so numerous and geographically diverse
21 that joinder of all of them is impracticable. While the exact number and identities of members of the 22 Class are unknown to plaintiff at this time and can only be ascertained through appropriate
23 discovery, plaintiffs believe and therefore aver that there are thousands of Class members throughout 24 the United States.
25

26
27                   

---

28                   <sup>1</sup> See Canon 3.C(3)(a) of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges.

1           27.    Commonality: There are questions of fact and law common to members of the Class
 2 that predominate over any questions affecting any individual members including, inter alia, the
 3 following:

- 4                   (a)    Whether defendants sold the Products that were recalled or subject to a recall;
- 5                   (b)    Whether defendants advertised, represented, or held themselves out as 6 producing or manufacturing a pet food product that was safe for pets of the Class members;
- 7                   (c)    Whether defendants expressly warranted these products;
- 8                   (d)    Whether defendants purported to disclaim any express warranty;
- 9                   (e)    Whether defendants purported to disclaim any implied warranty;
- 10                  (f)    Whether any limitation on warranty fails to meet its essential purpose;
- 11                  (g)    Whether defendants intended that the Products be purchased by plaintiff, Class 12 members, or others;
- 13                  (h)    Whether defendants intended or foresaw that plaintiff, Class members, or 14 others would feed the Products to their pets;
- 15                  (i)    Whether defendants recalled the Products;
- 16                  (j)    Whether defendants was negligent in manufacturing or processing the 17 Products;
- 18                  (k)    Whether using the Products as intended – to feed their pets – resulted in loss,
 19 injury, damage, or damages to the Class;
- 20                  (l)    Whether defendants' negligence proximately caused loss or injury to damages;
- 21                  (m)    Whether Class members suffered direct losses or damages; and
- 22                  (n)    Whether Class members suffered indirect losses or damages.

23           28.    Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the other members of the 24 Class in that all such claims arise out of defendants' conduct in manufacturing, producing and 25 entering into the stream of commerce defective pet food and pet food products, defendants' conduct
 26 surrounding the recall of its product, and plaintiff's and Class members' purchase and use of 27 defendants' products. Plaintiff and the other members of the Class seek identical remedies under 28

1 identical legal theories, and there is no antagonism or material factual variation between plaintiff's
2 claims and those of the Class.

3 29. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class.
4 Plaintiff's claims are coextensive with, and not antagonistic to, the claims of the other members of
5 the Class. Plaintiff is willing and able to vigorously prosecute this action on behalf of the Class, and 6 plaintiff has retained competent counsel experienced in litigation of this nature.

7 30. Plaintiff brings this action under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3) because common questions
8 of law and fact (identified in ¶25 above) predominate over questions of law and fact affecting 9 individual members of the Class. Indeed, the predominant issue in this action is whether defendants'
10 Products are defective and have caused damages to plaintiff and the members of the Class. In 11 addition, the expense of litigating each Class member's claim individually would be so cost
12 prohibitive as to deny Class members a viable remedy. Certification under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3)
13 is appropriate because a class action is superior to the other available methods for the fair and 14 efficient adjudication of this action, and plaintiff envisions no unusual difficulty in the management 15 of this action as a class action.
16

17 31. The undersigned counsel for plaintiff and the Class request that the Court appoint
18 them to serve as class counsel first on an interim basis and then on a permanent basis. Undersigned
19 counsel will fairly and adequately represent the interests of the Class, have identified or investigated
20 the Class' potential claims, are experienced in handling class actions, other complex litigation, and 21 consumer claims of the type asserted in the action, know the applicable law, will commit sufficient
22 resources to represent the Class, and are best able to represent the Class.
23

24 32. Plaintiff requests this Court to certify this Class in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 23
25 and the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005.
26
27
28

1 VI. CAUSES OF ACTION

2 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

3 Breach of Implied Warranty

4 33. Plaintiff hereby adopts and incorporates by reference ¶¶1-32 as if more fully set forth
5 herein.

6 34. Defendants manufactured, marketed, sold and distributed the Products.

7 35. At the time that defendants marketed, sold, and distributed the Products, defendants
8 knew of the purpose for which the Products were intended and impliedly warranted that the Products
9 were of merchantable quality and safe and fit for such use.
10

11 36. Plaintiff reasonably relied upon the skill, superior knowledge and judgment of 12 defendants as to whether the Products were of merchantable quality and safe and fit for its intended 13 use.

14 37. Due to defendants' wrongful conduct as alleged herein, plaintiff could not have 15 known about the risks and side effects associated with the Products until after ingestion by plaintiff's 16 dog.
17

18 38. Contrary to such implied warranty, the Products were not of merchantable quality and 19 were not safe or fit for their intended use.

20 39. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' breach of implied warranty, plaintiff
21 suffered damages as alleged herein.

22 WHEREFORE, plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated, prays for relief
23 and judgment against defendants as follows:

24 A. For an order certifying the Class under the appropriate provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P.
25 23, as well as any appropriate subclasses, and appointing plaintiff and her legal counsel to represent
26 the Class;

27 B. Awarding actual and consequential damages;
28

1 C. Granting injunctive relief;

2 D. For pre- and post-judgment interest to the Class, as allowed by law;

3 E. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs to counsel for the Class if and when
4 pecuniary and non-pecuniary benefits are obtained on behalf of the Class; and

5 F. Granting such other and further relief as is just and proper.

6 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

7 Breach of Express Warranty

8 40. Plaintiff hereby adopts and incorporates by reference ¶¶1-39 as if more fully set forth
9 herein.

10 41. Defendants expressly warranted that the Products were safe for consumption by pets.

11 42. The Products did not conform to these express representations because the Products
12 are not safe and cause serious side effects in pets, including death.

13 43. As a direct and proximate result of the breach of said warranties, and as the direct and 14 legal result of the defective condition of the Products as manufactured and/or supplied by 15 defendants, and other wrongdoing of defendants described herein, plaintiff was caused to suffer 16 damages.
17

18 WHEREFORE, plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated, prays for relief
19 and judgment against defendants as follows:

20 A. For an order certifying the Class under the appropriate provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P.
21 23, as well as any appropriate subclasses, and appointing plaintiff and her legal counsel to represent
22 the Class;

23 B. Awarding actual and consequential damages;

24 C. Granting injunctive relief;

25 D. For pre- and post-judgment interest to the Class, as allowed by law;

26 E. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs to counsel for the Class if and when 27 pecuniary and non-pecuniary benefits are obtained on behalf of the Class; and 28

1 F. Granting such other and further relief as is just and proper.

2 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

3 Negligence

4 44. Plaintiff hereby adopts and incorporates by reference ¶¶1-43 as if more fully set forth
5 herein.

6 45. Defendants owed plaintiff a duty to only offer safe, non-contaminated products for 7 consumption by household pets.

8 46. Through their failure to exercise due care, defendants breached this duty by 9 producing, processing, manufacturing, and offering for sale the Products in a defective condition that 10 was unhealthy to plaintiff's pet.

11 47. Additionally, defendants breached their duty of care to plaintiff by failing to use
12 sufficient quality control, perform adequate testing, proper manufacturing, production, or processing,
13 and failing to take sufficient measures to prevent the Products from being offered for sale, sold, or fed 14 to pets.

15 48. Defendants knew or, in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, that the 16 Products presented an unacceptable risk to the pet of plaintiff, and would result in damage that was 17 foreseeable and reasonably avoidable.

18 49. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' above-referenced negligence, plaintiff and the 19 Class have suffered loss and damages.

20 WHEREFORE, plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated, prays for relief
21 and judgment against defendants as follows:

22 A. For an order certifying the Class under the appropriate provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P.
23 23, as well as any appropriate subclasses, and appointing plaintiff and her legal counsel to represent
24 the Class;

25 B. Awarding actual and consequential damages;

1 C. Granting injunctive relief;

2 D. For pre- and post-judgment interest to the Class, as allowed by law;

3 E. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs to counsel for the Class if and when
4 pecuniary and non-pecuniary benefits are obtained on behalf of the Class; and

5 F. Granting such other and further relief as is just and proper.

6 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 Strict Product Liability

8 50. Plaintiff hereby adopts and incorporates by reference ¶¶1-49 as if more fully set forth
9 herein.

10 51. Defendants are producers, manufacturers and/or distributors of the Products.

11 52. The Products produced, manufactured and/or distributed by defendants were 12 defective in design or formulation in that, when the Products left the hands of defendants, the 13 foreseeable risks exceeded the benefits associated with the design or formulation.
14

15 53. Defendants' Products were expected to and did reach plaintiff without substantial 16 change in condition.

17 54. Alternatively, the Products manufactured and/or supplied by defendants were 18 defective in design or formulation, in that, when they left the hands of defendants, they were 19 unreasonably dangerous, more dangerous than an ordinary consumer would expect, and more
20 dangerous than other pet food products without concomitant accurate information and warnings 21 accompanying the product for plaintiff to rely upon.
22

23 55. The Products produced, manufactured and/or distributed by defendants were
24 defective due to inadequate warning and/or inadequate testing and study, and inadequate reporting
25 regarding the results of same.

26 56. The Products produced, manufactured and/or distributed by defendants were 27 defective due to inadequate post-marketing warning or instruction because, after defendants knew or 28

1 should have known of the risk of injury from the Products, defendants failed to immediately provide
2 adequate warnings to plaintiff and the public.

3 57. As the direct and legal result of the defective condition of the Products as produced,
4 manufactured and/or distributed by defendants, and of the negligence, carelessness, other
5 wrongdoing and actions of defendants described herein, plaintiff suffered damages.

6 WHEREFORE, plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated, prays for relief
7 and judgment against defendants as follows:

8 A. For an order certifying the Class under the appropriate provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P.
9 23, as well as any appropriate subclasses, and appointing plaintiff and her legal counsel to represent
10 the Class;

11 B. Awarding actual and consequential damages;

12 C. Granting injunctive relief;

13 D. For pre- and post-judgment interest to the Class, as allowed by law;

14 E. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs to counsel for the Class if and when
15 pecuniary and non-pecuniary benefits are obtained on behalf of the Class; and

16 F. Granting such other and further relief as is just and proper.

17 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

18 Unjust Enrichment

19 58. Plaintiff hereby adopts and incorporates by reference ¶¶1-57 as if more fully set forth
20 herein.

21 59. As a direct, proximate, and foreseeable result of defendants' acts and otherwise
22 wrongful conduct, plaintiff suffered damages. Defendants profited and benefited from the sale of the 23 Products, even as the Products caused plaintiff to incur damages.

24 60. Defendants have voluntarily accepted and retained these profits and benefits, derived 25 from consumers, including plaintiff, with full knowledge and awareness that, as a result of 26 defendants' unconscionable wrongdoing, consumers, including plaintiff, were not receiving products
27
28

1 of the quality, nature, fitness, or value that had been represented by defendants or that reasonable
2 consumers expected. Plaintiff purchased pet food that she expected would be safe and healthy for 3 her dog and instead has had to now endure the death of her beloved pet.

4 61. By virtue of the conscious wrongdoing alleged in this Complaint, defendants have 5 been unjustly enriched at the expense of plaintiff who is entitled to, and hereby seeks, the 6 disgorgement and restitution of defendants' wrongful profits, revenue, and benefits, to the extent,
7 and in the amount, deemed appropriate by the Court; and such other relief as the Court deems just 8 and proper to remedy defendants' unjust enrichment.

10 62. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law.

11 WHEREFORE, plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated, prays for relief
12 and judgment against defendants as follows:

13 A. For an order certifying the Class under the appropriate provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P.
14 23, as well as any appropriate subclasses, and appointing plaintiff and her legal counsel to represent
15 the Class;

16 B. Awarding reimbursement, restitution and disgorgement from defendants of the 17 benefits conferred by plaintiff and the Class;

18 C. For pre- and post-judgment interest to the Class, as allowed by law;

19 D. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs to counsel for the Class if and when 20 pecuniary and non-pecuniary benefits are obtained on behalf of the Class; and

Case No. 07-5055

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs Scott and Barbara Widen through their undersigned counsel, on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated, upon both personal knowledge and information and belief, alleges as follows:

1. This class action is brought against Defendants for negligently contaminating the pet food supply making the food unfit for animal consumption and harmful and for purposefully failing to warn consumers of the contaminated pet food. As a result of Defendant's actions, Plaintiff and other similarly situated pet owners have been damaged.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiffs Richard and Barbara Widen are a married couple and residents of Benton County, Arkansas. Plaintiffs lost two cats due to the contaminated food produced, distributed, marketed, and sold by the Defendants.

3. Defendant, Menu Foods Income Fund (Menu Foods) is an unincorporated company with its principal place of business in Ontario, Canada. It is doing business in the State of Arkansas and has availed themselves of the protections of the State of Arkansas. Jurisdiction is appropriate pursuant to the Arkansas Long Arm Statute, Ark. Code Ann. 16-4-101 and service may be effected through the Hague convention on service abroad of judicial and extrajudicial documents and civil or commercial matters at 8 Falconer Drive, Streetsville, ON, Canada L5N 1B1.

Menu Foods Midwest Corp. is a Delaware corporation and may be served through its registered agent for service, The Corporation Trust Company, Corporation Trust Center, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington DE. Defendant, Menu Foods Holding, Inc., is a Delaware corporation and may be served through its registered agent for service, The Corporation Trust Company, Corporation Trust Center, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington Delaware. Menu Foods operates two manufacturing plants in the United States and distributes their pet food products throughout the entire United States including Arkansas.

Defendant, Menu Foods, Inc. is a New Jersey corporation and may be served through its registered agent for service, Corporation Trust Company, 820 Bear Tavern Road, West Trenton, New Jersey. Upon information and belief, Defendants Menu Food Midwest Corp., Menu Foods South Dakota Inc., Menu Foods, Inc., and Menu Foods Holdings, Inc., are wholly owned subsidiaries of Menu Foods Income Fund, a business registered in and headquartered in Ontario, Canada. The above listed Defendants are hereinafter referred to collectively as "Defendants" or "Menu Foods"

4. Defendant Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. (Wal-Mart) is a Delaware corporation headquartered in Bentonville, Arkansas that sells Menu Food products throughout their retail stores in Arkansas and throughout the United States. Wal-Mart is the single largest distributor of Menu Foods products. Plaintiffs purchased the contaminated pet food at the Wal-Mart store in Bentonville, AR. Menu Foods produced some brands of pet food exclusively for Wal-Mart under a private label agreement.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1332(d)(2). The matter in controversy exceeds $5,000,000, is a class action and there are members of the proposed Class that are citizens of States different than at least one of the Defendants.

6. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391 (b) and (d). Defendant Wal-Mart is headquartered in the District. Defendant Menu Foods Income Fund is a foreign corporation headquartered outside the United States and distributes, through retailers such as Wal-Mart, the pet food products in issue in the District. Additionally, Plaintiffs purchased the tainted pet food in the District.

FACTS

7. Defendant, Menu Foods told the U. S. Food and Drug Administration, that they had become aware of the contamination on February 20, 2007. Menu Foods believed that the contamination came from their supplier of Wheat Gluten. Defendant, Menu Foods conducted test to determine if the contamination was harmful to pets on February 27, 2007. The results of the test resulted in death to one out of every six pets who consumed the contaminated pet food.

8. Defendants Menu Foods and Wal-Mart did nothing to prevent the distribution of the contaminated pet food until weeks after the discovery occurred. This action, or lack thereof, permitted and caused additional harm to thousands of pet owners in Arkansas and throughout the country.

9. Plaintiffs owned two cats that were very healthy middle aged cats. The two cats were named "Fred" and "Grinch." Plaintiffs fed the two cats "Special Kitty" cat food which was made by Menu Foods exclusively for Wal-Mart under a private label agreement.

10. Beginning around February, 2007, Plaintiffs noticed that both cats were acting differently and had begun to lose weight. In a tragic irony, Plaintiff forced the cats to eat more of the contaminated pet food, unaware that the pet food was contaminated and the cause of the poor health.

11. On March 18, 2007, Plaintiff was finally made aware through the media that a recall had been issued for the pet food by the Defendant, Menu Foods and that the pet food could cause kidney failure and other symptoms that were being experienced by the Plaintiffs' cats. On March 19, 2007, Plaintiffs took their cats to their veterinarian for examination. That same day, the veterinarian ran some tests and informed the Plaintiffs that both cats were suffering from kidney failure due to the consumption of the contaminated pet food. The veterinarian suggested that the only chance of survival for the cats was a very expensive procedure in which the likelihood of success was very small.

12. The veterinarian diagnosed the kidney failure to be the result of the cats consumption of contaminated pet food. The veterinarian recommended that the Plaintiffs call a Menu Foods hotline number which she provided to the Plaintiffs. The hotline had been set up on or around March 17, 2007, nearly three weeks after Menu Foods had become aware of the problem. The veterinarian suggested that Menu Foods should pay for the expensive procedure.

13. The Plaintiffs called the hotline number around a hundred times to determine if Menu Foods would pay for the procedure and never reached an operator or answering machine. Finally, out of desperation the Plaintiffs called another number for Menu Foods and left a message for somebody from Menu Foods to call them. The message was never returned.

14. Around 3:30 p.m. on the afternoon of March 19, 2007, Plaintiffs made the decision that their cats could not suffer any further and euthanized the cats.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

15. Plaintiffs brings all claims as class claims pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The requirements of Rule 23 are met with respect to the Class defined below.

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs Suzanne E. Johnson and Craig R. Klemann ("Plaintiffs"), by and through their undersigned attorneys, bring this civil action for damages on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated against the above-named Defendant and complain and allege as follows:

I. NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiffs bring this action as a Class Action under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure on behalf of all persons who purchased any dog or cat food that was produced by defendant Menu Foods and/or has had a dog or cat become ill or die as a result of eating the food.

2. The Defendant is a producer of, inter alia, dog and cat food. Menu Foods produces dog and cat food sold under familiar brand names such as Iams, Eukanuba and Science

1 Diet. Menu Foods distributes its dog and cat food throughout the United States to retailers such
2 as Wal-Mart, Kroger and Safeway.

3 3. Dog and cat food that the Defendant produced caused an unknown number of
4 dogs and cats to become ill, and many of them to die.

5 4. To date, Menu Foods has recalled 50 brands of dog food and 40 brands of cat
6 food that have sickened and killed dogs and cats. All recalled food to date is of the "cuts and 7 gravy wet" style.

8 5. As a result of the Defendant's actions, Plaintiffs and other Class members have 9 suffered economic damage.

10 II. PARTIES

11 6. Plaintiffs Suzanne E. Johnson and Craig R. Klemann have at all material times
12 been residents of Meridian, Idaho. Ms. Johnson and Mr. Klemann have a pet that became sick
13 after eating Defendant's pet food.

14 7. Defendant Menu Foods is, upon information and belief, a corporation organized
15 under the laws of Canada that transacts business in Washington State.

16 III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

17 8. Subject-matter jurisdiction is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1) because the
18 Plaintiffs and Defendant are citizens of different states and the amount in controversy exceeds 19 $75,000.00. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the state-law claims under 28 U.S.C.
20 § 1367.

21 9. Venue is proper in this judicial district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(a) because the
22 Defendant systematically and continuously sold its product within this district and Defendant
23 transacts business within this district.

24 IV. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATION

25 10. Plaintiffs bring this suit as a class action under Rules 23(a), (b)(1), (b)(2) and

 2 Defendant and/or has had a dog or cat become ill or die as a result of eating the food. Plaintiffs
 3 reserve the right to modify this class definition before moving for class certification.

4 11. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest
 5 among the members of the Class.

6 12. Membership in the Class is so numerous as to make it impractical to bring all
 7 Class members before the Court. The identity and exact number of Class members is unknown
 8 but is estimated to be at least in the hundreds, if not thousands considering the fact that Menu
 9 Foods has identified 50 dog foods and 40 cat foods that may be causing harm to pets.

10 13. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of those of other Class members, all of whom have
 11 suffered harm due to Defendant's uniform course of conduct.

12 14. Plaintiffs are members of the Class.

13 15. There are numerous and substantial questions of law and fact common to all of 14 the members of the Class that control this litigation and predominate over any questions affecting 15 only individual members of the Class. The common issues include, but are not limited to, the 16 following:

17 (a) Was the Defendant's dog and cat food materially defective, and unfit for 18 use as dog or cat food?

19 (b) Whether Defendant breached any contract, implied contract or warranties
 20 related to the sale of the dog and cat food?

21 (c) Did the Defendant's dog and cat food cause Plaintiffs' and other Class
 22 members' pets to become ill?

23 (d) Were Plaintiffs and other Class members damaged, and, if so, what is the 24 proper measure thereof?

25 (e) The appropriate form of injunctive, declaratory and other relief.

1           16.     The prosecution of separate actions by members of the Class would create a risk
2 of establishing incompatible standards of conduct for the Defendant – for example, one court
3 might decide that the Defendant is obligated under the law to pay damages to Class members,
4 and another might decide that the Defendant is not so obligated. Individual actions may, as a
5 practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of the Class.

6           17.     Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class in that they
7 have no interests that are antagonistic to other members of the Class and have retained counsel
8 competent in the prosecution of class actions to represent themselves and the Class.

9           18.     A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient
10 adjudication of this controversy. Given (i) the substantive complexity of this litigation; (ii) the 11 size of individual Class members' claims; and (iii) the limited resources of the Class members,
12 few, if any, Class members could afford to seek legal redress individually for the wrongs
13 Defendant has committed against them.

14           19.     Without a class action, the Class will continue to suffer damage, Defendant's
15 violations of the law or laws will continue without remedy, and Defendant will continue to enjoy
16 the fruits and proceeds of its unlawful misconduct.

17           20.     This action will foster an orderly and expeditious administration of Class claims,
18 economies of time, effort and expense, and uniformity of decision.

19           21.     Inferences and presumptions of materiality and reliance are available to obtain
20 class-wide determinations of those elements within the Class claims, as are accepted
21 methodologies for class-wide proof of damages; alternatively, upon adjudication of Defendant's
22 common liability, the Court can efficiently determine the claims of the individual Class
23 members.

24           22.     This action presents no difficulty that would impede the Court's management of it
25 as a class action, and a class action is the best (if not the only) available means by which 26 members of the Class can seek legal redress for the harm caused them by Defendant.

23. In the absence of a class action, Defendant would be unjustly enriched because it would be able to retain the benefits and fruits of its wrongful conduct.

24. The Claims in this case are also properly certifiable under applicable law.

37. Defendant was and continues to be unjustly enriched at the expense of Plaintiffs and other Class members.

40. Defendant's sale of tainted pet food constitutes an unlawful, deceptive and unfair business act within the meaning of the Washington Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86 et seq., and similar statutory enactments of other states (including consumer protection and consumer sales practice acts).

41. Defendant's sale of hazardous pet food has the capacity to deceive a substantial portion of the public and to affect the public interest.

42. As a result of Defendant's unfair or deceptive acts or practices, Plaintiffs and other Class members suffered injuries in an amount to be proven at trial.

Plaintiff,

MENU FOODS, a foreign corporation,

Defendant.

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs Stacey Heller, Toinette Robinson, David Rapp, and Cecily and Terrence Mitchell ("Plaintiffs"), by and through their undersigned attorneys, bring this civil action for damages on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated against the above-named Defendant and complain and allege as follows:

I. NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiffs bring this action as a Class Action under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure on behalf of all persons who purchased any dog or cat food that was produced by defendant Menu Foods and/or has had a dog or cat become ill or die as a result of eating the food.

2. The Defendant is a producer of, inter alia, dog and cat food. Menu Foods produces dog and cat food sold under familiar brand names such as Iams, Eukanuba and Science

1 Diet. Menu Foods distributes its dog and cat food throughout the United States to retailers such
2 as Wal-Mart, Kroger and Safeway.

3 3. Dog and cat food that the Defendant produced caused an unknown number of
4 dogs and cats to become ill, and many of them to die.

5 4. To date, Menu Foods has recalled 50 brands of dog food and 40 brands of cat
6 food that have sickened and killed dogs and cats. All recalled food to date is of the "cuts and
7 gravy wet" style.

8 5. As a result of the Defendant's actions, Plaintiffs and other Class members have 9 suffered economic damage.

10 II. PARTIES

11 6. Plaintiff Stacey Heller has at all material times been a resident of Pulaski,
12 Virginia. Ms. Heller had a pet that became sick and died after eating Defendant's pet food.

13 7. Plaintiff Toinette Robinson has at all material times been a resident of Truckee,
14 California. Ms. Robinson had a pet that became sick and died after eating Defendant's pet food.

15 8. Plaintiff David Rapp has at all material times been a resident of Hannover
16 Township, Pennsylvania. Mr. Rapp had a pet that became sick and died after eating Defendant's 17 pet food.

18 9. Plaintiffs Cecily and Terrence Mitchell have at all material times been a resident
19 of Seattle, Washington. The Mitchells had a pet that became sick and died after eating 20 Defendant's pet food.

21 10. Defendant Menu Foods is, upon information and belief, a corporation organized
22 under the laws of Canada that transacts business in Washington State.

23 III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

24 11. Subject-matter jurisdiction is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1) because the 25 Plaintiffs and Defendant are citizens of different states and the amount in controversy exceeds
26

1 $75,000.00. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the state-law claims under 28 U.S.C.
2 § 1367.

3 12. Venue is proper in this judicial district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(a) because the
4 Defendant systematically and continuously sold its product within this district and Defendant
5 transacts business within this district.

6 IV. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATION

7 13. Plaintiffs bring this suit as a class action under Rules 23(a), (b)(1), (b)(2) and
8 (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on behalf of themselves and a Plaintiff Class (the 9 "Class") composed of all persons who purchased any dog or cat food that was produced by the
10 Defendant and/or has had a dog or cat become ill or die as a result of eating the food. Plaintiffs
11 reserve the right to modify this class definition before moving for class certification.

12 14. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest
13 among the members of the Class.

14 15. Membership in the Class is so numerous as to make it impractical to bring all
15 Class members before the Court. The identity and exact number of Class members is unknown
16 but is estimated to be at least in the hundreds, if not thousands considering the fact that Menu
17 Foods has identified 50 dog foods and 40 cat foods that may be causing harm to pets.

18 16. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of those of other Class members, all of whom have
19 suffered harm due to Defendant's uniform course of conduct.

20 17. Plaintiffs are members of the Class.

21 18. There are numerous and substantial questions of law and fact common to all of
22 the members of the Class that control this litigation and predominate over any questions affecting
23 only individual members of the Class. The common issues include, but are not limited to, the 24 following:

25 (a) Was the Defendant's dog and cat food materially defective, and unfit for
26 use as dog or cat food?

(b) Whether Defendant breached any contract, implied contract or warranties related to the sale of the dog and cat food?

(c) Did the Defendant's dog and cat food cause Plaintiffs' and other Class members' pets to become ill?

(d) Were Plaintiffs and other Class members damaged, and, if so, what is the proper measure thereof?

(e) The appropriate form of injunctive, declaratory and other relief.

19. The prosecution of separate actions by members of the Class would create a risk of establishing incompatible standards of conduct for the Defendant – for example, one court might decide that the Defendant is obligated under the law to pay damages to Class members, and another might decide that the Defendant is not so obligated. Individual actions may, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of the Class.

20. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class in that they have no interests that are antagonistic to other members of the Class and have retained counsel competent in the prosecution of class actions to represent themselves and the Class.

21. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Given (i) the substantive complexity of this litigation; (ii) the size of individual Class members' claims; and (iii) the limited resources of the Class members, few, if any, Class members could afford to seek legal redress individually for the wrongs Defendant has committed against them.

22. Without a class action, the Class will continue to suffer damage, Defendant's violations of the law or laws will continue without remedy, and Defendant will continue to enjoy the fruits and proceeds of its unlawful misconduct.

23. This action will foster an orderly and expeditious administration of Class claims, economies of time, effort and expense, and uniformity of decision.

Inferences and presumptions of materiality and reliance are available to obtain class-wide determinations of those elements within the Class claims, as are accepted methodologies for class-wide proof of damages; alternatively, upon adjudication of Defendant's common liability, the Court can efficiently determine the claims of the individual Class members.

25. This action presents no difficulty that would impede the Court's management of it as a class action, and a class action is the best (if not the only) available means by which members of the Class can seek legal redress for the harm caused them by Defendant.

26. In the absence of a class action, Defendant would be unjustly enriched because it would be able to retain the benefits and fruits of its wrongful conduct.

27. The Claims in this case are also properly certifiable under applicable law.

V. STATEMENT OF FACTS

4 dogs and cats to become ill, and many of them to die.

5 4. To date, Menu Foods has recalled 50 brands of dog food and 40 brands of cat
6 food that have sickened and killed dogs and cats. All recalled food to date is of the "cuts and
7 gravy wet" style.

9 suffered economic damage.

IV. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATION

11. Plaintiffs bring this suit as a class action under Rules 23(a), (b)(1), (b)(2) and (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on behalf of themselves and a Plaintiff Class (the "Class") composed of all persons who purchased any dog or cat food that was produced by the Defendant and/or has had a dog or cat become ill or die as a result of eating the food. Plaintiffs reserve the right to modify this class definition before moving for class certification.

12. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest among the members of the Class.

13. Membership in the Class is so numerous as to make it impractical to bring all Class members before the Court. The identity and exact number of Class members is unknown but is estimated to be at least in the hundreds, if not thousands considering the fact that Menu Foods has identified 50 dog foods and 40 cat foods that may be causing harm to pets.

14. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of those of other Class members, all of whom have suffered harm due to Defendant's uniform course of conduct.

15. Plaintiffs are members of the Class.

16. There are numerous and substantial questions of law and fact common to all of the members of the Class that control this litigation and predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the Class. The common issues include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) Was the Defendant's dog and cat food materially defective, and unfit for use as dog or cat food?

(b) Whether Defendant breached any contract, implied contract or warranties related to the sale of the dog and cat food?

(c) Did the Defendant's dog and cat food cause Plaintiffs' and other Class members' pets to become ill?

(d) Were Plaintiffs and other Class members damaged, and, if so, what is the proper measure thereof?

(e) The appropriate form of injunctive, declaratory and other relief.

17. The prosecution of separate actions by members of the Class would create a risk of establishing incompatible standards of conduct for the Defendant – for example, one court might decide that the Defendant is obligated under the law to pay damages to Class members, and another might decide that the Defendant is not so obligated. Individual actions may, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of the Class.

18. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class in that they have no interests that are antagonistic to other members of the Class and have retained counsel competent in the prosecution of class actions to represent themselves and the Class.

19. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Given (i) the substantive complexity of this litigation; (ii) the size of individual Class members' claims; and (iii) the limited resources of the Class members, few, if any, Class members could afford to seek legal redress individually for the wrongs Defendant has committed against them.

20. Without a class action, the Class will continue to suffer damage, Defendant's violations of the law or laws will continue without remedy, and Defendant will continue to enjoy the fruits and proceeds of its unlawful misconduct.

21. This action will foster an orderly and expeditious administration of Class claims, economies of time, effort and expense, and uniformity of decision.

22. Inferences and presumptions of materiality and reliance are available to obtain class-wide determinations of those elements within the Class claims, as are accepted methodologies for class-wide proof of damages; alternatively, upon adjudication of Defendant's common liability, the Court can efficiently determine the claims of the individual Class members.

23. This action presents no difficulty that would impede the Court's management of it as a class action, and a class action is the best (if not the only) available means by which members of the Class can seek legal redress for the harm caused them by Defendant.

24. In the absence of a class action, Defendant would be unjustly enriched because it would be able to retain the benefits and fruits of its wrongful conduct.

25. The Claims in this case are also properly certifiable under applicable law.

IV. GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17. Plaintiffs were the owners and guardians of Shasta, a female Pomeranian.

19. Plaintiffs started feeding the contaminated food to Shasta on or about March 15, 2007.

20. After eating the contaminated food, Shasta became extremely ill, causing the Plaintiffs to take her to a veterinarian on or about March 19, 2007. The veterinarian informed them that Shasta suffered devastatingly acute renal failure. On or about March 20, 2007, Shasta arrested and died.

22. In March 2007 Menu Foods recalled 50 brands of cuts and gravy wet-style dog food and 40 brands of cuts and gravy wet-style cat food which had caused dogs and cats to become ill. One common symptom in the sick animals was kidney failure, also known as acute renal failure.

23. The contaminated food that Shasta consumed is one of the brands that Menu Foods recalled.

24. The Plaintiffs lost Shasta's intrinsic value, as based on her unique qualities, characteristics, training, and bond, as well as the loss of her utility, companionship, love, affection, and solace. At the time of her death, Shasta had no fair market value and could not be replaced or reproduced. Rather, she had an intrinsic value.

25. The Plaintiffs owned and formed a relationship with Shasta for 11 years. She was a close family companion throughout that period and had special value, aiding Plaintiffs in their enjoyment of life, well-being, growth, development, and daily activities.

26. As a result of Defendants' actions causing Shasta's death, the Plaintiffs have suffered loss of enjoyment of life, interference with use and quiet enjoyment of their realty and personality, and general damages pertaining to loss of use.

27. As a result of Defendants' acts and omissions the Plaintiffs and other Class members have suffered emotional and economic damage, including but not limited to mental anguish, loss or reduction of enjoyment of life, interference with use and quiet enjoyment of realty and/or personality, wage loss, current and future veterinary and health-related bills, depreciation in or extinguishment of intrinsic, special, unique, or peculiar value, loss of use and/or companionship, actual, incidental, and consequential damages.

31. Defendants' sale of hazardous dog and cat food has the capacity to deceive a substantial portion of the public and to affect the public interest.

32. As a result of Defendants' unfair or deceptive acts or practices, Plaintiffs and other class members suffered injuries in an amount to be proven at trial.

40. Defendants owed Plaintiffs and class members a duty to exercise reasonable care in representing the safety of its dog and cat foods.

41. Defendants falsely represented that its dog and cat food was safe for consumption by dogs and cats.

42. In reality, defendants' dog and cat food caused dogs and cats to become ill and, in some cases, to die.

43. Plaintiffs and class members reasonably relied on the information provided by Defendants regarding the safety of its dog and cat food.

SIXTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF – NEGLIGENT INFLECTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

1 based on the understanding that the food was safe for their companion animals to

3 49. The dog and cat food produced by the defendants was not safe for companion animals to 5 food constituted a breach of contract.

6 50. As a result of the breach, Plaintiffs and Class members suffered damages which may

8 reasonably be supposed to have been in the contemplation of the parties, at the time they 9 made the contract, as the probable result of the breach of it.

10 51. To the extent defendants' breach was reckless, wanton, or intentional and defendants

19 commercial dog and cat food supply, recalling the tainted product before the illness and 20 death toll rose further, and/or not warning consumers of the tainted product.

21 53. Defendants acted indifferently to the high degree of manifest danger and erroneous
22 destruction of sentient property, to wit, Class Members' companion animals, to which 23 Plaintiffs and Class Members would be and was exposed by such conduct.

24 54. The proximate cause of Plaintiffs and Class Members' injuries was the grossly negligent
25 conduct of Defendants in the above regard.

26 TENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF - PRODUCTS LIABILITY

27 55. Defendants are strictly liable under RCW 7.72.030 (and analogous products liability 28 statutes around the nation) for proximately causing harm to Plaintiffs by manufacturing a 29 product that was not reasonable safe in construction.

30 56. The proximate cause of Plaintiffs and Class Members' injuries was the grossly negligent
31 conduct of Defendants in the above regard.

Civil Action No.:

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Larry Wilson ("Plaintiff"), individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, alleges by and through his attorneys, upon information and belief, as

NATURE OF CASE

1. Plaintiff brings this class action on behalf of himself and a class of consumers and entities who purchased brands of pet food manufactured by Defendants that caused pets to suffer severe illness or death. Pet owners, believing Defendants' products to be safe for pet consumption, incurred substantial expenses relating to the purchase of the pet food and to the veterinary monitoring and treatment that became necessary after their pets consumed Defendants' pet food. Such expenses were even more extreme for those pet owners whose pets became terminally ill after consuming Defendants' pet food products. Such costs arose and were exacerbated by the undue amount of time taken by Defendants to announce the dangers associated with its dog and cat foods. Although Defendants knew that pet illnesses and deaths could be related to their pet foods, Defendants waited for nearly a month before telling the public and the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) that it was recalling its products. Defendants' lethal products, and the companies' excessive delay in warning consumers and regulatory agencies as to its dangers, resulted in significant financial loss to thousands of pet owners.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. The Court has original jurisdiction over this class action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1332(d)(2).
2. Venue in this judicial district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(a)(1) because Plaintiff resides in this judicial district. Venue is also proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(a)(2) because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred in this judicial district.

3. The members of the putative Class have suffered aggregate damages exceeding $5,000,000, exclusive of interest and costs.

PARTIES

4. Plaintiff Larry Wilson resides at 1230 South Avenue Lodi, CA 95240.

5. Defendant Menu Foods Income Fund is a Canadian company with its principal executive offices located at 8 Falconer Drive, Streetsville, Ontario, Canada L5N 1B1.

6. Defendant Menu Foods Holdings, Inc. is a Delaware corporation and may be served through its registered agent for service, The Corporation Trust Company, Corporation Trust Center, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington Delaware.

7. Defendant Menu Foods, Inc. is a New Jersey corporation with its principal executive offices located at 9130 Griffith Morgan Lane, Pennsauken, New Jersey 08110. Menu Foods, Inc. is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Menu Foods Holdings, Inc.

8. Defendant Menu Foods Midwest Corporation is a Delaware corporation with its principal executive offices located at P.O. Box 1046, 1400 East Logan Avenue, Emporia, Kansas 66801. Menu Foods Midwest Corporation is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Menu Foods Holdings, Inc.

9. Unless otherwise stated, Defendants Menu Foods Income Fund, Menu Foods Holdings, Inc., Menu Foods, Inc., and Menu Foods Midwest Corporation are collectively referenced as "Defendants."

10. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were the agents, principals, employees, servants, partners, joint venturers, and representatives of each other. In doing the acts hereinafter alleged, they each were acting within the scope and course of their authority as such agents, principals, employees, servants, partners, joint venturers, and representatives, and were acting with the permission and consent of the other Defendant.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

11. Defendants manufacture and sell pet food internationally and are the biggest supplier of pet food in North America.

12. Defendants sell pet food under nearly 100 different brand names, some of which are the most popular brands of dog and cat food in the industry – e.g., Iams, Eukanuba, Science Diet, among others.

13. Defendants sell their brands internationally and in some of the largest major retail chains in the United States, such as Wal-Mart, Safeway, Kroger, PetSmart and Meijer.

14. On March 16, 2007, Defendants, in conjunction with the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), announced a massive immediate recall of approximately 60 million containers of “cuts and gravy” pet food (pet food consisting of pieces of meat in gravy) throughout the United States based on widespread reports of pet illness and death, mostly related to kidney failure. The recall covers all “cuts and gravy” pet food produced and distributed by Defendants, including over ninety different brands of dog and cat food. Some of the brands recalled include, Iams, Eukanuba, Best Choice, Paws, and Nutro Max. Defendants’ recall is the largest pet food recall in United States history.

15. However, Defendants waited an excessive period of time before deciding to recall its harmful and lethal products. Defendants first started receiving complaints of pet illnesses and deaths as early as late-February, almost a full month before deciding to recall its products. See, e.g., CBSNews.com, Pet Food Co. Knew of Problem Last Month, March 20, 2007, at

<http://www.cbsnews.com/stories/2007/03/20/national/main2587087.shtml> (last viewed March 22, 2007). Rather than announcing its products could be harmful to pets as soon as it learned of pet illnesses and deaths, Defendants decided to conduct its own testing. Defendants conducted tests involving over 50 animals to observe reactions to its pet foods. Approximately one in six of the animals tested died. Yet, Defendants again waited until as many as seven test subjects died after eating its pet food before finally submitting its findings to the FDA and deciding that a recall and announcement to the public would be necessary.

16. Due in no small part to this unnecessary and protracted delay, as of March 21, 2007 there have been at least seventy-two reported pet deaths from kidney failure nationwide and additional deaths continue to be reported by the hour. One source indicated that 1,715 dogs and cats were either sick or dead as a result of the recalled food products. See <http://www.petconnection.com/blog/> (last viewed March 22, 2007).

17. Pet owners purchased Defendants' products believing them to be safe for pet consumption and beneficial to their pets. However, the "cuts and gravy" style pet food that pet owners across the nation have fed their pets has proved to be toxic, causing renal failure in cats and dogs as well as physical disorders such as dehydration, diarrhea, loss of appetite, increased thirst, lethargy, and vomiting.

18. Pet owners have incurred substantial expenses relating both to the purchase of Defendants' pet food and from the medical costs associated with monitoring and treating pets who have consumed, or were thought to have consumed, Defendants' contaminated food products. Indeed, several pet owners have accrued veterinary bills that have climbed into the several thousands of dollars. Furthermore, for those pet owners whose pets became terminally ill, they were forced to incur additional costs relating to their pets death, such as euthanizing and, for some, burying or cremating their pet.

19. Currently, Defendants still have not identified the cause of the food toxicity. However, aminopterin, a substance found in rat poisons, was recently discovered in the recalled foods.

20. In addition, pet owners who have become increasingly concerned about their pet's health after learning of the recall have received little to no relief from Defendants. Defendants have failed to manage the high volume of incoming complaints. Since instituting the recall, pet owners have been largely unable to reach Defendants' customer service representatives, often encountering busy signals or voicemail messages. See, e.g.,

Thejournalnews.com, Pet Owners Growling over Food Recall, March 20, 2007, at <http://www.thejournalnews.com/apps/pbcs.dll/article?AID=/20070320/BUSINESS01/703200345/1066> (last viewed March 22, 2007). To be sure, Defendants have been criticized for not being cooperative with customers, for not getting helpful information out to the public sooner and for failing to "get control of the crisis . . . employ[ing] a bunker mentality in times of trouble." Joseph R. Perone, The Star-Ledger, Menu Foods Fails Test in Crisis Management, March 21, 2007, available at <http://www.nj.com/starledger/stories/index.ssf?/base/business-6/117445554784980.xml&coll=1> (last viewed March 23, 2007).

21. Since the recall, Defendants have received scores of complaints and questions from consumers who have purchased its contaminated pet food products and from those whose pets have become ill or died after consuming those products.

22. The complaints found throughout the Internet and in many of the news stories mentioned above each contain the same common theme of consumers who unwittingly purchased Defendants' food products and who were forced to take their pets to veterinarians for medical treatment after their pets became extremely, and sometimes terminally ill.

23. Plaintiff Larry Wilson purchased and fed Special Kitty brand wet pet food to his cat, Simon. Special Kitty is a brand of cat food recalled by Defendants.

24. After eating the cat food, Simon became noticeably ill. Mr. Wilson admitted Simon to a veterinarian for diagnosis and treatment, where it was discovered that Simon was suffering from kidney failure.

25. In order to treat Simon's failing renal system, a veterinarian began administering fluids to Simon intravenously and is continuing to monitor Simon's condition.

26. Simon's diagnosis, treatment and monitoring cost Mr. Wilson over $2,000 in two days. The veterinarian caring for Simon has suggested placing Mr. Wilson's cat on dialysis for further treatment. However, this would cost Mr. Wilson an additional three to four thousand dollars – an amount Mr. Wilson cannot afford to pay.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

27. Plaintiff brings this action as a class action pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a) and 23(b) on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated as members of the following class (the "Class"): All persons and entities that purchased "cuts and gravy" style dog or cat food manufactured, distributed, marketed and/or sold by Defendants.

28. Subject to additional information obtained through further investigation and discovery, the Class definition may be expanded or narrowed by amendment or amended complaint. Specifically excluded are Defendants, their officers, directors, agents, trustees, parents, children, corporations, trusts, representatives, employees, principals, servants, partners, joint venturers, or entities controlled by Defendants, and their heirs, successors, assigns, or other persons or entities related to or affiliated with Defendants and/or their officers and/or directors, or any of them; the Judge assigned to this action, and any member of the Judge's immediate family.

29. Numerosity. The members of the Class are so numerous that their individual joinder is impracticable. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that the proposed class contains tens of thousands of members. The precise number of Class members is unknown to Plaintiff. The true number of Class members are known by Defendants, however, and thus, may be notified of the pendency of this action by first class mail, electronic mail, and by published notice.

30. Existence and Predominance of Common Questions of Law and Fact. Common questions of law and fact exist as to all members of the Class and predominate over any questions affecting only individual Class members. These common legal and factual questions include, but are not limited to, the following:

- a. Whether Defendants intentionally, recklessly or negligently authorized injurious pet food to enter the market;
- b. Whether Defendants failed to properly test their "cuts and gravy" style dog and cat food before market entry of such food;
- c. Whether Defendants intentionally, recklessly or negligently delayed in instituting a recall of its "cuts and gravy" style dog and cat food;
- d. Whether Defendants' recall is adequate and properly notifies potentially affected consumers;
- e. Whether Defendants have been unjustly enriched as a result of their conduct, as alleged herein; and
- f. Whether Plaintiff and members of the Class have sustained damages as a result of Defendants' conduct, and, if so, what is the appropriate measure of damages.

31. Typicality. Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the members of the Class in that Plaintiff and each member of the Class purchased "cuts and gravy" style dog or cat food manufactured, distributed, marketed and/or sold by Defendants.

32. Adequacy of Representation. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the members of the Class. Plaintiff has retained counsel experienced in complex consumer class action litigation, and Plaintiff intends to prosecute this action vigorously. Plaintiff has no adverse or antagonistic interests to those of the Class.

33. Superiority. A class action is superior to all other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. The damages or other financial detriment suffered by individual Class members is relatively small compared to the burden and expense that would be entailed by individual litigation of their claims against the Defendants. It would thus be virtually impossible for Class, on an individual basis, to obtain effective redress for the wrongs done to them. Furthermore, even if Class members could afford such individualized litigation, the court system could not.

Individualized litigation would create the danger of inconsistent or contradictory judgments arising from the same set of facts. Individualized litigation would also increase the delay and expense to all parties and the court system from the issues raised by this action. By contrast, the class action device provides the benefits of adjudication of these issues in a single proceeding, economies of scale, and comprehensive supervision by a single court, and presents no unusual management difficulties under the circumstances here.

34. In the alternative, the Class may be certified because:

- a. the prosecution of separate actions by individual Class members would create a risk of inconsistent or varying adjudication with respect to individual Class members that would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the Defendants;
- b. the prosecution of separate actions by individual Class members would create a risk of adjudications with respect to them that would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other Class members not parties to the adjudications, or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests; and/or
- c. Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class thereby making appropriate final and injunctive relief with respect to the members of the Class as a whole.

35. Adequate notice can be given to Class members directly using information maintained in Defendants' records, or through publication notice.

36. Defendants benefited from the sale of its "cuts and gravy" style dog and cat food to Plaintiff and the Class. The benefit to Defendants can be identified from the sale of such pet food to Plaintiff and the Class and that such monies can be restored to Plaintiff and the Class. Such monies are the property of the Plaintiff and the Class. All or a portion of this benefit retained by Defendants is money in which Plaintiff and the Class have an ownership interest. Plaintiff and the Class were injured and lost money as a result of Defendants' unfair, unlawful and fraudulent business practices described herein.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

[Negligence]

37. Plaintiff asserts this claim against each and every Defendant on behalf of himself and the Class.

38. Defendants owed a duty to Plaintiff and the Class to provide pet food safe and suitable for pet consumption.

39. Through their failure to exercise due care, Defendants were negligent in manufacturing, distributing, marketing and selling pet food to Plaintiff and the Class.

40. Defendants failed to implement adequate quality control and adequate testing of its pet food that they introduced into the stream of commerce for sale to Plaintiff and the Class and for consumption by their pets.

41. Defendants knew, or should have known, that their pet food, as described above, presents an unreasonable and unacceptable risk of injury or death to pets, and would result in foreseeable and avoidable damage.

42. The losses and damages described herein were foreseeable and avoidable.

43. Defendants' negligence proximately caused the losses and damages to Plaintiff and the Class.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

[For Unjust Enrichment]

44. Plaintiff hereby realleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs previously alleged herein. Plaintiff asserts this claim against each and every Defendant on behalf of himself and the Class.

45. Defendants have received, and continue to receive, a benefit at the expense of Plaintiff and members of the Class. Defendants have knowledge of this benefit.

46. Defendants have charged and collected from consumers, including Plaintiff and members of the Class, money for dog and cat food that endangers the lives of their pets. Defendants thus have received benefits that they have unjustly retained at the expense of Plaintiff and members of the Class.

47. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful acts and conduct, Plaintiff and members of the Class were deprived of the use of their monies that was unlawfully charged and collected by Defendants, and are therefore entitled to restoration of their monies.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

[Breach Of Express Warranty]

48. Plaintiff hereby realleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs previously alleged herein. Plaintiff asserts this claim against each and every Defendant on behalf of himself and the Class.

49. Defendants expressly warranted that their "cuts and gravy" style pet food was suitable and safe for pet consumption.

50. Defendants also expressly warranted that "it manufacturer[s] the private-label wet pet-food industry's most comprehensive product program with the highest standards of quality."

51. Plaintiff and the Class were induced by Defendants' marketing, advertising, promotion and labeling of the pet food as suitable "food" to rely upon such express warranty, and, in fact, relied upon the untrue warranty in purchasing the recalled pet food and feeding it to their pets.

52. Plaintiff and the Class were damaged as a proximate result of Defendants' breach of their express warranty.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

[Breach Of Implied Warranty]

53. Plaintiff hereby realleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs previously alleged herein. Plaintiff asserts this claim against each and every Defendant on behalf of himself and the Class.

54. Defendants are merchants under section 2-104 and 2-314 of the Uniform Commercial Code.

55. Through their marketing, advertising, promotion and labeling of their "cuts and gravy" style pet food, Defendants impliedly warranted that such pet food was fit for the ordinary purpose for which it was intended, including to safely nourish pets with risk of illness or death, pursuant to section 2-314 of the Uniform Commercial Code.

56. Through their marketing, advertising, promotion and labeling, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and the Class would purchase their pet food for the ordinary purpose of providing nourishment to their pets.

57. Defendants manufactured, distributed, marketed, advertised, promoted and sold their pet food for the ordinary purpose for which it was purchased by Plaintiff and the Class.

58. Plaintiff and the Class relied upon Defendants' representations and warranties, and purchased and used Defendants' pet food for the ordinary purpose for which it was sold.

59. Defendants' pet food purchased by Plaintiff and the Class were unfit for their ordinary purpose when sold. Such food was sold while presenting a risk of risk of illness or death to pets. Defendants have accordingly breached the implied warranty of merchantability by selling such unfit pet food.

60. Plaintiff and the Class were damaged as a proximate result of Defendants' breach of warranty.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, prays for judgment against Defendants as follows:

1. For an order certifying the Class under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and appointing Plaintiff and his counsel of record to represent the Class;
2. For restitution, disgorgement and/or other equitable relief as the Court deems proper;
3. For compensatory damages sustained by Plaintiff and all others similarly situated as a result of Defendants' unlawful acts and conduct;
4. For a permanent injunction prohibiting Defendants from engaging in the conduct and practices complained of herein;
5. For pre-judgment and post-judgment interest;
6. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including expert witness fees; and
7. For such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
